

Incessant is a Gold Sponsor at Appian Around the World 2016

London, UNITED KINGDOM, September 12, 2016: Incessant Technologies, an NIIT Technologies company, delivering a wide range of enterprise BPM and CRM services to its clients, today announced that, it will join the Appian Around the World 2016 as a Gold sponsor. The event will take place on 4th & 5th of October at Grand Connaught Rooms, London.

Appian Around the World 2016 is a two-day business conference, which will house leading Appian experts, business users and BPM industry leaders to discuss latest trends in the BPM discipline. The conference will set the stage for discussing on how businesses can master their business transformation journey leveraging Appian's recent product updates and success stories across the globe.

Incessant technologies, with approximately 70 Appian experts (100% ACAD Certified, 55% Platinum and Gold Certified Practitioners), have proven expertise in helping organizations achieve their digital goals. Their industry leading solutions include: Customer On-boarding, Continuous Delivery and Business Operations Suite. These solutions have highly optimized processes to accelerate your Appian journey.

"Appian Around the World is a key partnership event for Incessant. We provide our prospective clients an opportunity to learn about latest Appian technology updates and explore real time case studies to understand how they can achieve digital innovation" said Pramod Nookala, Associate Director - Technology at Incessant Technologies.
